

CHAPTER

AIA Blue Ridge
A Chapter of The American Institute of Architects

MEETING

Thursday, October 19, 2006, 6:30 pm

Tour of a private residence designed by Fay Jones and Maurice Jennings
E. Fay Jones, FAIA (deceased), Maurice Jennings, AIA (Architect-of-record)

Comments / presentation by design architect Maurice Jennings – a true one-time event.

1896 Fox Hill Road, Lynchburg, Virginia

From Boonsboro Road, take Trents Ferry Road north until you cross Judith Creek into Bedford County, take an immediate right onto Fox Hill Road, approx. 1 mile on your left. We will have a sign at the drive.

pdf map will be posted on www.aiablueridge.org

- 3:45 PM Bus leaves Virginia Tech / behind Cowgill Hal
- 5:00 Bus leaves Valley View Mall / Books-a-Million
- 6:30 Arrival, Hors d'ovres, Self-guided tour
- 7:00 Dinner Buffet, Self-guided tour continues
- 7:45 Comments and Presentation by Maurice Jennings, AIA
- 8:30 Close of Meeting
- 8:45 Bus leaves Lynchburg
- 10:15 Bus arrives at Valley View Mall / Books-a-Million
- 11:30 Bus arrives Virginia Tech / behind Cowgill Hall

(1.5 AIA CEU)

RSVP by end-of-business Thursday, October 12th to

Emmett Lifsey at 434-847-6564 or email (preferred) emmett.lifsey@cjmw.com

There will be a limited number of attendees allowed – sign up early to reserve your place.

$25.00 per person for members and guests, $15 for students – to be received at the door, checks or cash only.

SPONSORED IN PART BY:

Pella Windows

Maurice Jennings was Fay Jones, FAIA long-time & only architectural partner. Jones participated in an initial design meeting with the Lynchburg client, and Jennings was architect-of-record for this home overlooking the James River.

1973 Maurice Jennings joins Euine Fay Jones, Architect

1986 Fay Jones + Maurice Jennings Architects is formed

1998 Maurice Jennings + David McKee Architects

2006 Maurice Jennings Architects

www.mauricejennings.com

Menu:

Louisiana Style Jambalaya (with sausage/shrimp)

Sides of Red Beans and Rice

Homemade rolls stuffed with thinly sliced country ham

Garden Salad, tossed with a light vinaigrette dressing

Southwest Potatoes

Fresh apple cake with homemade caramel sauce

Small pickup sweets or basket of fresh baked cookies.